

On the publication of Living in Love and Faith

The prayer, scholarship and personal commitment put into Living in Love and Faith by so many people over the past three years must now be put to good use. This means using the LLF resources in respectful, honest and open discussion throughout the Church. It is the bishops' responsibility to see that this happens and we trust that they will.

Christina Baron,
Chair, General Synod Gender and Sexuality Group