Dear Martin

Thank you for your email and for advanced sight of your response to my letter of 6 February. Having reflected upon the matters which you raise, I remain content that both the approach which I have taken as a trustee, and on behalf of the Council as a whole, and the consideration which I have given to your complaints, are appropriate. Indeed, a responsible action of a trustee in such circumstances is to seek independent legal advice. Accordingly, I consider this matter closed and thus do not intend to enter into further correspondence on this matter.

With best regards

Carl
